DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-33 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: When read as a whole claims 1, 8, 12, 17, 22, 23, and 32 are allowable with respect to the following limitations:

With respect to claim 1, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of automatically continuing with the scheduling method without resolving the conflict, including detecting further resource conflicts and generating further indications that resource conflicts exist.

With respect to claim 8, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of wherein the source scheduling process is configured such that normal operation of the scheduling process is independent of resolution of any conflicts.

With respect to claim 12, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of wherein the user may elect to continue normal operation of the resource scheduling process without resolving any conflicts including conveying to the user indications that at least one further conflict exists.

With respect to claim 17, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation to generate a resource schedule in the presence of unresolved conflicts including detection further conflicts.

Art Unit: 2113

With respect to claim 22, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of wherein suppression of the resource conflict allows the computer program to continue executing to generate a complex schedule with at least one unresolved conflict.

With respect to claim 23, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of if no input is received in response to the indication continuing with generating the complex schedule, wherein the complex schedule includes the conflict.

With respect to claim 32, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of wherein suppressing a conflict comprises saving information related to the conflict and generating the resource schedule including the unresolved conflict.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
